THE KILLING IN THE CONSULATE

Investigating the Life and Death of Jamal Khashoggi

Talk & Book signing by JONATHAN RUGMAN, the award-winning Channel 4 News Foreign Affairs Correspondent

Saturday 7th December 2019

Starts at 11.00am (coffee at 10.30am)

When Jamal Khashoggi walked into the Saudi Consulate in Turkey on 2nd October 2018, he was expecting to pick up the documentation that would enable him to marry his fiancé, Hatice Cengiz. Little did he realise he was walking into a trap. Based on confidential sources dramatic new evidence and in-depth research, come along to hear the BAFTA award - winning foreign correspondent, Jonathan Rugman reveal in minute -by- minute detail the truth about what happened that day in extracts from his recently published book.

Jonathan Rugman has been the Foreign Correspondent at Channel 4 news since 2006. He was previously in Washington DC and Istanbul and reported from Turkey for more than 25 years. He also covered the Arab Spring revolts, previously worked for the BBC and written for The Guardian and The Observer. In association with the Kew Bookshop, copies will be available for sale on the day at St Anne's and Jonathan will be delighted to sign copies and add a personal dedication
